Ms. Covell:

Thank you for your recent inquiries to the Arizona Attorney General's Office related to Open Meeting Law. The Open Meeting Law Enforcement Team (OMLET) conducts investigations and enforcement relating to complaints that public bodies have violated the Open Meeting Law.

OMLET received your July 2026 complaint against the Town of Prescott Valley and your two voicemails. When an attorney has been assigned to review the complaint, you will receive a letter. At this time, no further information is available.

If you have additional information or materials that you would like to submit related to your complaint, please direct these to OMLETinfo@azag.gov.
